Sharvari Shailendra for applicant.
None for respondents.

CORAM : R.S. MOHITE, J.

DATE : 27TH NOVEMBER, 2007.

P.C. :-

. This is an application for leave to appeal against the Judgment and Order passed by Judicial Magistrate, First Class, Khandala dated 1st March, 2005 in Criminal Case No. 62 of 2000. By the said impugned Judgment and order the trial court has acquitted the accused for the offence punishable under section 463 and 420 read with 34 of Indian Penal Code. The case of the complainant is that the accused person who were incoming directors of the company of which complainant was Managing Director had signed forged share transfer form of the outgoing directors and transferred the shares on their name and the respondents with dishonest intention forged the said documents. From the record, it is found that the complainant had admitted his own signature on the allegedly forged documents i.e. share transfer forms and complainant also admitted that he had handed over the share certificates in the custody of the respondents. On the above reasoning, the acquittal cannot be faulted. Hence, this is not the fit case for interference in an appeal against acquittal. Leave refused. Consequently, appeal papers to be filed. Application dismissed.
